

The Treehouse Project

The objective of the Treehouse Project is for students to build a 3D version of their dream house. The project based learning activity focuses on designing elements, problem solving skills, planning, budgeting and project management skills.

Students will also showcase their skills in math, writing and imagination!

